

We are pleased to announce that NAMIC Insurance Solutions policyholders now have access to a powerful HR and employment law best practices program – NAMIC Insurance Employment Law Resource Center!

The benefits of this valuable employer HR and risk management resources are numerous and are now included among the benefits of your policy. The service complements policyholders' local employment law resources and supports a proactive approach to both day-to-day and complex HR issues while realizing significant savings of time and expense.

SERVICE BENEFITS

- Unlimited, direct access to experienced employment law attorneys (phone or email) who can assist with common issues employers face and answer specific questions with documented advice, no later than the end of the next business day
- Easily-assigned online training courses including sexual harassment prevention for supervisors and employees
- A state-specific employee handbook building tool to develop complete handbooks or specific policies by using a step-by-step guide
- Live and recorded webinars focused on topics relevant to today's employers, with HRCI certification credits for live webinar participation
- Monthly Express Updates that keep you informed of continuously changing workplace regulations
- A customizable online web destination which includes practical best practices guides, federal and state news/regulation updates, posters, forms, customizable model job descriptions, and more

Two Next Steps – What You Can Expect

- ① Please attend one of the introductory webinars on either option below
Tuesday, 2.14 at 9amET: Register here
Thursday, 2.16 at 11amET: Register here
- ② Each of your designated users will receive a personal welcome call and a follow up email with personal access codes